NAVY LOSSES TO

The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, March 3.—A

cent rate in navy personnel before congress
on today as Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Knox disclosed an estimate of a force of 2,250,000 men

"force" plan and his estimate of the costs of the plan were made public by

GANDHI ENDS
HIS FAST TODAY

Takes Orange Juice After 21-Day Hunger Strike Against Imprisonment.

By The Associated Press
NEW DELHI, March 3.—Mohandas K. Gandhi, 73-year-old Indian Nationalist leader, ended his 21-day hunger strike in protest against his imprisonment by the British by sipping a glass of orange juice at 9:30 a. m. today (midnight, EWT, Tuesday).

A communique announcing the end of the fast said that Gandhi was weak and showed signs of strain but was in good spirits.

In contrast to public ceremonies
which have attended the termination of Gandhi's nine previous fasts, only members of his immediate family were present in the Asa Kian's palace at Poona
to take part in singing and prayers as his self-imposed ordeal was brought to a conclusion.

Two minutes were spent in meditation before Gandhi accepted from his wife's hands the first nourishment he has taken in three weeks, except for small quantities of water and lime juice.

Six doctors who attended him
throughout the fast will remain on hand to maintain a close watch over Gandhi during his convalescence.

With the end of the fast, Gandhi reverts to his status as a political prisoner, special concessions which permitted him to receive visitors being withdrawn. Only his relatives will be permitted to see him as long as he remains under detention.

The little ascetic has been confined in the palace since last Aug.
9 when his All-India Congress party began a civil disobedience campaign against British rule. He embarked on his fast Feb. 10 following an exchange of correspondence with the British viceroy, Lord Linlithgow, in which he dis-claimed responsibility for violence resulting from the campaign and asked that he be released.

GREEN CAMP CHANGES
OVER TO FAST TIME

Council Revokes Previous Action
After Petitions Are Presented.

Special to The Star
GREEN CAMP, March 3.— Green Camp is on fast time, at least until fall.

The village council Monday night adopted a resolution placing the community on "the same time as the official time of the city of Marion, Ohio," and resolving action taken last Wednesday to place the community on slow time.

A petition with signatures of 143 voters in the village was presented to council by George Reynolds and Floyd Wolfinger asked that council reconsider its action of last week and place the village on the Marion time schedule.

containers permitted now
by the government.

REDS TAKE RZHEV, STRONG NAZI
POSITION; BERLIN STILL BURNINGMarion Gets Air Raid Sirens, Lacks Wire To Install Them

Civilian Defense Group Meets Army's Requirements.
But WPB Won't Release Wire To Connect Them.

Marion has seven air raid sirens but whether they will ever sound an alarm in the city is uncertain.

Here is the story, related this morning by William R. Martin, head of the city's civilian defense council, and Jay Newell, captain of an air raid wardens in the Sixth Ward, through whom the signals
were purchased.

The sirens, 2-horsepower signals
of a type approved by the Army, are in Marion, uncrated
and at the civilian defense council center in the old North State Street school building.

The Army ordered Marion to get approved type signals before staging a second blackout Marion's first blackout several months ago won the general approval of Army and Ohio State Defense Council officials, except for the signal system of aerial bombs and factory whistles.

The report to local CD officials stated emphatically that another blackout would not be approved until a proper signal system was established.

Several types of signals were tested and an electrically operated siren manufactured in Jackson, Mich., was found to be the most satisfactory.

At a cost of $150 each, a minimum non-profit price obtained by Mr. Newell of the Automotive Supply Co., the local defense council purchased seven of the sirens using funds set aside for the CD in the United War Chest.

The signals were shipped on Feb. 19 and arrived last week.
Shortly after they arrived the war production board notified
CD officials that no priority would be given on equipment for installing them, particularly the wire for conducting the current.

Canteen Kitchen Due
at 11 A. M. Thursday

To give war workers and men and women who are staging the Red Cross war fund campaign an opportunity to make an inspection, the official Red Cross mobile canteen kitchen will remain open until 8 Thursday night. It will be parked at 11 a. m. on East Center street, in front of the courthouse.

"We especially want these groups to visit the kitchen," Miss Ruth Kleinmiller, chairman of the canteen service of the Marion County Red Cross chapter, said
this morning.

Equipped to serve hot food to 1,500 people, the kitchen, in traveling, packs into a family-sized automobile trailer. Set up for operations, a large tent is erected over the trailer. Cooking and part of the food preparation are done in the trailer.

ROBERT A. AXE

Junior C. of C.
Award Goes To
Robert A. Axe

Robert A. Axe of 215 Ellis court was awarded a "distinguished service key" at the annual award dinner of the Junior Chamber of Commerce last night in the Marion club quarters at Hotel Harbor.

Thirty-five members and guests, including wives and friends, attended.

Mr. Axe won the award for leading the 1942 infantile paralysis campaign sponsored by the Junior C. of C. in connection with the annual President's birthday observance.

This year the award was confined to outstanding service
among members of the Junior C.
of C. In former years the organization has presented a plaque and generally it has gone to an older man.

"We didn't follow the tradition because the city has lost so many fine men to the armed forces and through shifting of war jobs that we decided to give an award to one of our members, basing it strictly on service given to the city of Marion through the Junior Chamber of Commerce," Le-Roy Stull, president of the organization, said this morning. "We hope to renew the awarding of a plaque when conditions are more settled."

Presenting of the award to Mr.
Axe came as a complete surprise.
Not until Mr. Stull, who presented the key, mentioned the infantile paralysis drive of 1942 did Mr.
Axe have an inkling that the award was to go to him. He gave a brief acceptance talk, thanking the Junior Chamber for the honor.

George Stafford was master of ceremonies.

Mr. Axe, son of Mr. and Mrs.
L. A. Axe of 297 Mt. Vernon avenue, is associated with his father in the L. A. Axe & Son funeral home. He is married and has three children, Gregory, Kevin and Sheila.

He was selected for the honor
by a Junior Chamber committee composed of Richard Demman, Herbert Amann and Bernard Brooks.

4 JAP SHIPS
IN CONVOY HIT
BY BOMBERS

Transports Smashed in Allied Attack; 13 Fighter Planes Shot Down.

By The Associated Press
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN AUSTRALIA, March 3.—Four Japanese transports and a cargo ship, escorted by a destroyer convoy, were hit by Allied bombs
and fighters yesterday, staggered through the fog-shrouded Bismarck sea today, and in the early morning hours of today were sunk or damaged off the New Guinea coast, Gen. Douglas MacArthur's press
release said.

At least four transports and cargo vessels of the original in-vader force of seven Japanese warships, and seven merchant ships have been sunk or damaged and 13 Japanese fighter planes out of the fog-shrouded Bismarck sea
today, and in the early morning hours of today were sunk or damaged off the New Guinea coast, Gen. Douglas MacArthur's press release said.

"Our losses are light," he said,
"but the enemy's are heavy."

Four ships hit
The bulletin said a 10,000-ton
transport had been hit five times and left a wash and in flames on a 6,000-ton transport had been hit after breaking in two, a 6,000-ton vessel was directly hit on the bow and a smaller vessel was damaged
and set on fire.

Allied Flying Fortress and Liberator bombers, with a fleet escort of P-38 fighters, stabbed
through murky haze, thick clouds and rain to deliver their blows
in the face of heavy anti-aircraft
fire and Japanese fighter planes.

"Other hits or near hits were scored against warships and cargo ships, results of which have so far been impossible to assess," the communiqué said. Pilots reported a near hit on a Japanese light cruiser.

Other Jap Bases Hit
General MacArthur's airmen
also pounded Jap bomber and aircraft bases, punishing the airborne attack. At the same time bombers attacked airbases on Sumba and Sumbawa islands,
northwest of Australia, destroyed an ammunition ship directly with a 500-pound bomb at Wide Bay,
New Britain, and smashed at the Gusuma, New Britain, airbase in an after-dark raid, the commu-
niqué said.

Estimated that who participated in the attack on the convoy had heavy bombs explode amidships on the 6,000-ton transport and watched it split in two and sink
in flames within two minutes, reports from operation bases said.

The Japanese lost six more planes out of a convoy of fighters that attempted to attack an air-cruiser near Darwin, Australia,
shortly after noon yesterday.

URBAN F. ZACHMAN

COUNTY BOARD
MEMBER DIES

Urban F. Zachman Passes Away After Less Than 24-Hour Illness.

Urban F. Zachman, 50, Marion county commissioner, died this morning at City hospital in a coma caused by high blood pressure. He had been ill less than 24 hours.

After returning about 10:30 a.
m. yesterday to the county commissioner's office in the courthouse from visiting the site of a former CCC
camp east of Marion with Commissioners William L. Hinch and Harrison G. Kramer, Mr. Zachman complained of feeling ill. A physician was called and Mr. Hinch and Elmer Ullom took Mr. Zachman to his home at 220 St. James street.

His first real illness since about a year ago when he suffered an attack of acute indigestion in a meeting of the commissioners at the County home, the attack yesterday came without warning, although Mr. Zachman had been subject to spells of exhaustion for some time.

Shortly after a physician arrived to begin treatment he lapsed into unconsciousness from which he never rallied. He was taken to the hospital.

Mr. Zachman was 50 years old.
He was born in Marion, Ohio.
He was a member of the Marion County Board of Commissioners.

Bill To Prohibit Horse Meat Sale
in Ohio Defeated

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., March 3.—Sale of horse meat for Ohio dinner tables can continue, so far as the health committee of the house of representatives is concerned.

The committee last night
proposed legislation to prohibit the sale of horse meat for human consumption.

This set off a bitter protest by the bill's author, Rep. John H.
Wood (R-Montgomery). He argued "certain interests" of butchers and meat packers, of butchering his measure and declared:
"If I was allowed to tell what was behind this (bill), some of you fellows would not have voted that way."

"I don't believe the day has come when civilized people have to get down to the eating of horse meat," Wood told the committee. "I have had horses all my life.
I love 'em. What I am trying to do is to stop the killing of horses."

A representative of the Hill
Packing Company, Toledo, Kas., earlier told the committee it shipped nearly 1,000,000 pounds of horse meat into Ohio last year.

Other actions in the legislature
The senate voted to extend the parole privilege to persons serving life imprisonment for first degree murder.

The senate also sent to the house a bill making it a felony to unlawfully mutilate or destroy a dead human body.

The house completed re-enactment of the one-cent-a-gallon liquid fuel tax for two years after refusing to set aside 3,000,000 a year for local road use.

The house rejected a bill to make punishable by one to seven years imprisonment the theft of any war-rationed article worth more than $10.

Sen. P. H. Rogers (R-Lorain),
author of the parole bill, said it offered hope to the state's "forgotten" men and women, whose only chance for freedom from prison lies in pardon by the governor.

The senate education committee recommended passage of a bill by Sen. Virgil E. Cramer (R-Lucas) estimated to increase the state's annual subsidies to schools from $4,000,000 to $5,000,000 a year.

It would change the basis of payment from the average daily attendance to the average monthly enrollment and increase the per pupil daily payment, though the eight grade, from 25 cents to 29.

music was played by Miss Virginia Grover of the WMRN staff.

ALLIES WINNING
BACK ALL AREA
LOST IN AFRICA

Axis Attack in North Breaks
Under British Artillery
Fire.

By The Associated Press
MARSHAL SEMEN TIMOSHENKO's
new offensive finally has forced the Germans to withdraw from the tenuously held hedgehog fortress of Rzhev, 130 miles northwest of Moscow, the Nazis acknowledged today.

In Berlin, where news still raged from the RAF's greatest raid of the war on the German capital, Nazi warhounds had other worries, too.

The British air force struck at western Germany for the seventh consecutive night, though on a comparatively modest scale.

In northern Tunisia crack German armored and infantry units of Gen. Jürgen Von Arnim yesterday broke and ran under the about resistance and terrific artillery barrages of the British First army.

In Central Tunisia, too, British, American and French forces were slowly winning back all they had lost to Marshal Erwin Rommel
in his recent offensive.

Nazi Report Rzhev Loss
The fall of Rzhev was not claimed by the Russians, who in fact did not so much as mention that front in either today's mudi-day communique or the war bulletin of yesterday.

The German high command,
however, said the fortress had been cleared of German forces
"according to plan."

This phrasing suggested the Germans might be engaged in a far-reaching retreat on the northern front, similar to that carried out through the past three months in the south where they had withdrawn 400 miles from Stalingrad.

Rzhev was the advance strong point of the German line northwest of Moscow in the famous Velikie Luko-Rzhev-Vyazma triangle.

For months it was the apex of an L-shaped salient, partially surrounded by Russian forces on three sides who already had captured Velikie Luko, 140 miles to the west, and severed the railway communications with Vyazma, 85
miles to the south.

Other Russian columns had cut deep into the triangle by laying siege to the town of Bely.

Monday night the Russians announced they had begun a powerful new offensive northwest of Moscow and had knocked a huge hole in the German defense line
by capturing Demyansk, 110 miles northwest of Rzhev where the Germans had been fortified for 17 months.

The Russians thus appeared to have smashed two of the strongest points which had hedged in and prevented development of a powerful thrust toward the Baltic states. At Velikie Luko the Russian armies were only about 80 miles from the Latvian border.

ASKS MERCY FOR ENEMY

Madame Chiang Addresses 17,000 in Madison Square Garden Speech.

(More about Madame Chiang on editorial page)

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, March 3—Madame Chiang Kai-shek—the voice of an ill-armed people tortured for six years by the flames of war—has called for a peace of charity and forgiveness for the enemy when the day of United Nations' victory arrives.

Speaking last night to 17,000 people attending a meeting in her honor in Madison Square Garden and to a nationwide radio audience, the wife of the Chinese Generalissimo declared:

"The goal of our common struggle is the conclusion of this war should be to shape the future so that this whole world must be thought of as one great elastic common to Gods and men."

Plea for Justice
Mme. Chiang voiced a plea for a post war "resting on the pillars of justice, co-existence, cooperation and mutual respect."

Asking, "What are we going to make of the future?" and "What will the reawakening world, re-emerging from this hideous blood-letting, be like?" Mme. Chiang answered:

"The wisest minds in every corner of the world are pondering over these questions, and the wisest of all reserve their opinion. But, without letting leniency out-run discretion, I venture to say that certain things must be recognized. Never again must the dignity of man be outraged as it has been since the dawn of history."

"All nations, great and small, must have equal opportunity of development. Those who are stronger and more advanced should consider their strength as a trust to be used to help the weaker nations to fit themselves for full self-government and not to exploit them. Exploitation is spiritually as degrading to the exploiter as to the exploited."

Warn Against Bitterness
"Then, too, there must be no bitterness in the reconstructed world. No matter what we have undergone and suffered, we must try to forgive those who injured us and remember only the lesson gained thereby."

"... Finally, in order that this war may indeed be the war to end all wars in all ages, and that nations, great and small alike, may be allowed to live and let live in peace, security and freedom in the generations to come, cooperation in the true and highest sense of the word must be practiced."

Lieut. Gen. H. H. Arnold, chief of the United States army air force, told the meeting the air force's goal was wholesale bombing of Japan "to insure the total destruction of this enemy on his own soil."

General Arnold said his conferences with Generalissimo Chiang in Chungking three weeks ago had shown him "that few if any of the armies in history have had to operate under such impossible conditions as have the Chinese."

Hamilton, O., Officer Cited for Bravery

By The Associated Press
WITH U. S. FORCES ON THE TUNISIAN FRONT, March 1—(Delayed)—Second Lieut. Ford H. Hamilton of Hamilton, O., was cited by his division commander for outstanding bravery and devotion to duty during fighting in Tunisia.

Hamilton was honored for personally directing the fire of his command's four anti-aircraft guns so effectively that they destroyed 11 German planes in two days.

Lieut. Gen. H. H. Arnold, chief of the United States army air force, told the meeting the air force's goal was wholesale bombing of Japan "to insure the total destruction of this enemy on his own soil."

General Arnold said his conferences with Generalissimo Chiang in Chungking three weeks ago had shown him "that few if any of the armies in history have had to operate under such impossible conditions as have the Chinese."

Delaware Co. Man Tells All in Horse Sale Ad

DELWARE, O., March 3—Elmer Mann of near Leesburg, Ohio, is telling the plain, bald truth when it comes to selling horses. Following is an ad which he has inserted in The Delaware Gazette, reprinted just as he wrote it.

"FOR SALE—Pair of plug horses. These horses have been able to go out to the water trough and walk back in the barn by themselves without any help. I don't know what else I don't want to know. They have no contagious diseases. They are plenty tough but that don't hurt them any. I would not ask many dollars for this pair. I would rather trade them for 'chewing tobacco' and would like to do it right away, because I am scared they will soon 'chew' their way out of the 'chewing tobacco'."

State Tax Commissioner Hits Liquor Violations

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., March 3—State Tax Commissioner William S. Ewalt said he would appear today at a liquor board hearing here and ask revocation of the license of a Lakewood permit holder cited for purchasing whiskey from a state retail store to resell in his establishment.

John M. Dean, operator of the Detroit cafe, is accused of the offense. Ewalt criticized the board last week for decisions in four similar cases. In each instance, the board suspended the operator's permit. Then withheld imposition of the penalty pending good behavior.

The hearing board itself proposed the liquor board regulation banning purchase of liquor for resale from retail stores. He said the regulation was intended to halt sales tax evasion by permit holders.

Payroll Deduction Income Tax Grows in Public Favor

By GEORGE GALLUP
Director, American Institute of Public Opinion

WASHINGTON, N. J., March 3.—Payroll deduction income tax will be interesting in the future, according to a survey of public opinion in the pay-as-you-go taxation.

Amazing way to be Mentally ALERT ... Physically FIT!

Most proposals for instituting the pay-as-you-go system will for deducting the tax from wages and salaries on pay day. The new ways and means committee recently went on record as favoring tax collection by this method.

Half of all the nation's taxpayers, and a clear majority of those with earnings on the subject, came to that same conclusion fully eight months ago, and today the number has grown to the overwhelming proportion of 4 to 1.

Matter of Convenience
This means that although John Doe, one of the 30 million or more income taxpayers, already has several other items deducted from his pay check, he is willing to accept another deduction in order to keep even with the tax collector. Most taxpayers say they welcome the idea because it would be the most convenient way to pay what is owed.

The opinions of taxpayers on the pay deduction plan were gathered by 213 field reporters in personal conversations with employed persons who will have to pay an income tax on March 15. They were asked:

"Would you like to pay your Federal income tax by having

Rum Plan Popular

To put the country on a pay-as-you-go basis, the Rum plan, advanced by Boardley Rum of New York, proposes that the "tax" be set at one year's salary, so that payments in 1942 will apply to 1943 income instead of to the previous year's earnings.

The Rum plan has caught the public's imagination in dramatic fashion. Whereas last November only 22 per cent of taxpayers questioned in an Institute survey had heard about the Rum plan, by December the number had risen to 44 per cent, and by January, 51 per cent had heard of it and nine out of every ten with opinions favored it.

The trend of public support for the Rum plan is shown in the following survey results:

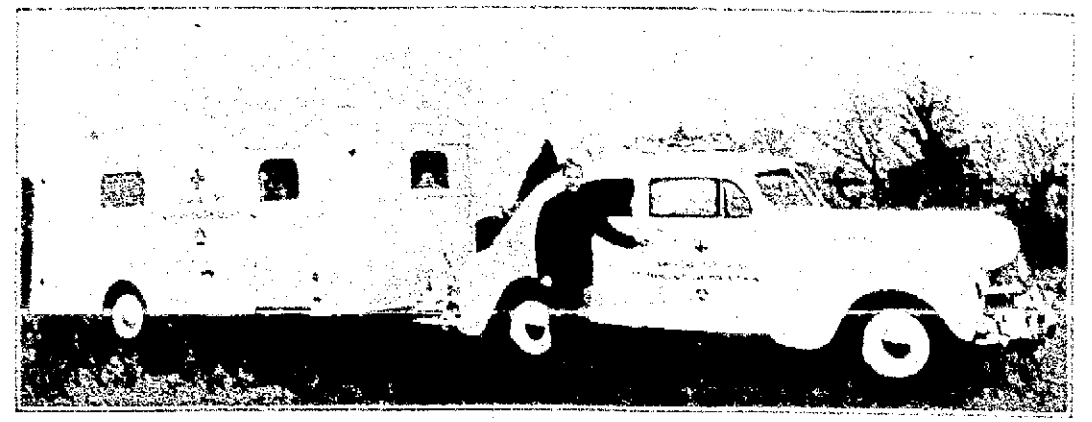

Attitude of Taxpayers With Opinions on the Rum plan	Dec.	Jan.
Favor Rum plan	76%	90%
Opposed	24	10

Last week this tide of public sentiment was reflected in Congress when, with the backing of a substantial number of members, steps were taken to force early consideration of the measure in the house of representatives.

Club Federation Hears Talk by Native Eskimo

By EDNA S. DUTTON
THERE are no houses to clean, no clothes to wash, no cooking to do in Baffin Island where Anautia played, hunted and fished through the long Arctic nights and short summers. These and other interesting facts about her life before coming to the United States were told tonight by a native Eskimo woman in her talk last night at the Star auditorium before the Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs, and the federation patron and patronesses.

Houses are built of snow and not ice. Food is cooked by freezing and Eskimo families live in their snow houses only a few days and then move into new hunting grounds. Anautia said. She described "camping" here as "the coldest I ever saw" and said it was much more uncomfortable than the 65 to 70 degrees below in her native land. She described her elaborately beaded costume of deer skin as the "everyday dress" of the Eskimo woman and told the women of her country had only three costumes a year, one for summer and two for the winter.

She described the Eskimos as a happy people, and their philosophy of life as living a day at a time. "We never talk of yesterday, it is always today—if we are going to help some one we do it today," she said. Time means nothing to the life of the Eskimo people and Anautia herself does not know how old she is.

Women and girls are taught to hunt from the time they are children. Anautia told her audience. "We are always finding bears, wolves and other animals, but," she added, "we don't have any snakes, thank goodness." Spending days spying her children's every move, Anautia was one of the ways Anautia learned the English language, and when people tell her she speaks English it is the greatest compliment they can pay her, she says.

From the deer the Eskimo gets meat, skin, thread from the sinews and two needles from bones in the front legs. Anautia explained. In addition to her work on the lecture platform Anautia has written about her life near the North Pole in a book titled "Land of the Good Shadows." Good shadows, she explained, is the Eskimo name for the Northern Lights which provide a light for them through the long night.

Mrs. Harold K. Mouser was in charge of the program hour. Mrs. Carl W. Sawyer, president, presented Robert Mason who spoke briefly in behalf of the Red Cross drive before the talk, and Mrs. Mouser gave a short talk on the Victory Book campaign. Following Anautia's talk a short business session was held and officers for the 1943-44, headed by Mrs. Sawyer as president were elected by the clubwomen.

Help For Russia

INTENSIFICATION of bombing raids on Europe from British bases can be seen in the fact that the British have now begun to drop incendiary bombs on the German coast. The British have also begun to drop incendiary bombs on the German coast.

These points, while obvious, need to be held in mind right now due to an attempt to make it appear that the only nation doing any real damage to Germany in the war is Russia. The Russians have not been fighting alone, as some spokesmen seem to think. They have had the assistance of aerial attack from Britain. They have had the assistance of a second front in Africa that has drawn off much German strength. They have had the assistance of supplies from their allies—all details to be remembered whenever an over-enthusiastic ideologist starts popping off. The Russians are a wonderful people, but they are identified abroad with some of the strangest characters ever to walk on their hind legs.

Report From MacArthur

FIRST direct word from Gen. MacArthur since his confident statement about air power at the close of the New Guinea campaign is a warning that the Japanese are getting ready on a 2,000-mile front facing Australia for action. But Gen. MacArthur does not specify who will initiate the action.

The general's countrymen believe the Japanese preparations are defensive. They believe that Gen. MacArthur has taken the initiative from the Japanese and will use it against them ruthlessly wherever they choose to make a stand. They believe that he and Admiral Nimitz between them will make Japanese militarists regret their decision to exploit the temporary advantage offered Japan to stab the United States in the back while it was weakened by Germany. It was only a year ago, incidentally, that Gen. MacArthur left Corregidor for Australia while the United States fleet still was digging itself out of the rubble at Pearl Harbor, which is a reminder that time has been going very rapidly the last 12 months.

Experience Helps

REGISTRATION for rationing isn't a perfect technique yet and probably never will be. But the job gets a little easier each time. Experience helps.

When there is time to use hindsight on the subject, it will be plainer than it is now that a gigantic task was performed with far less trouble than it was reasonable to anticipate. While there always will be those who get more pleasure from finding fault than from finding credit, even the fault finders must admit in their more lucid moments that the way millions of civilian volunteers pitched in to do a difficult job stands as one of the all-time triumphs of social cooperation.

The efforts of those who have worked hardest are quickly forgotten in the rush to new events, but when credit is allocated for gallant and conscientious performance of duty under extreme difficulty on the home front they will get their full share. They have performed so well, in fact, that the registration of upward of 130,000,000 citizens, each entitled to personal attention for his particular problem, now seems only slightly more than a matter of routine.

March

THE month of March has been ushered in gingerly this year. It hardly seems possible that it has arrived so soon. There must be some mistake.

The truth is, it wasn't expected for an indefinite time. In fact, there simply have been no preparations made, or scarcely any. The money for the income taxes isn't ready, the things that were going to be done this winter to raise the money haven't been finished, nothing is in shape for spring—the whole thing is very embarrassing.

Something must have continued to the confusion somewhere along the line, perhaps the unconscious resolution of years ago, February had 29 days. There will be 29 again next year, barring calendar reform. March won't come quite so soon in 1944, but if the Rural plan is working by 1944 its premature arrival won't be nearly so disconcerting as it has turned out to be this year.

A good deal has been said about the recent travels of the prime minister and the President, but two questions are still unanswered. Did Churchill add a few lines to his collection of sayings in Turkey? And did President Roosevelt add a round of coffee in Brazil?—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

14 OHIOANS FINED ON LOTTERY CHARGE

Federal Court Lets Them Off with $25 Penalties.

CHICAGO, March 3.—Fourteen Ohioans were among 62 persons fined $25 each after pleading guilty yesterday to charges of conspiring to violate lottery laws in a system which was said to have handled more than $1,000,000. Six Ohioans failed to appear for arraignment. The defendants, indicted by a federal grand jury last December, were accused of acting as agents in the sale of lottery tickets on baseball games, treasury balances and race track mutual numbers. Counsel for the defendants told Federal Judge Michael L. Igoe that most of those charged had no intention of violating the law and were working men who bought tickets and distributed them among friends. In sentencing those who pleaded guilty Judge Igoe said the case should have been tried "in the gambling courts" instead of the United States district court. The accused ring leaders in the case are to be tried April 5. Ohioans fined included Alta Nina Bourkel, Elyria; William Steven Bourkel, Elyria; Mrs. D. Esta Paul Bruck, Hamilton; Frank Earl Bruck, Hamilton; Ruth M. Day, Bellefontaine; McKinley N. Nichols, Bellefontaine; Raymond Joseph Doerr, Portsmouth; William Henry Dean; Sandusky; Albert M. Reas, Hamilton; Lawrence E. Reas, Hamilton; Patrick F. Costello, East Liverpool. Fourteen defendants who failed to answer when their names were called included these Ohioans: Oda B. McCollister, Newark; George W. Heller, Canton; Peter B. Friend, Mansfield.

FARM DEFERMENT BILL LACKS VOTES

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Sponsors of legislation for blanket draft deferment of all farm workers counted 43 senators—six less than a clear majority—for it today as opponents worked on a substitute to limit its application to those engaged in "essential" agricultural activities.

"It looks like we might have enough to pass it," said Senator Bankhead (D-Ala.) whose blanket farm deferment measure was approved by the military committee 9 to 7 yesterday in slightly modified form despite opposition from the war department and selective service. The main change made after Jan. 1, 1944.

"Those changes don't amount to anything," the Alabama told reporters. "The date limitation makes no difference because the Army says it has no plans for induction after the first of the year." In the house, the Kilday bill to give married men and men with children deferment priorities apparently had struck a snag and its backers admitted they were having difficulty extricating it. Approved almost two weeks ago by a 23 to 2 vote of the military committee, the measure cannot be voted on by the house, under normal procedure, until given clearance by the rules committee.

Chairman Sabath (D-Ill.) for rules committee hearings before next week, although he "might be able to squeeze them in late this week." Meanwhile, hearings on the Austin - Wadsworth compulsory homefront service bill were in progress until tomorrow and the senate itself was taking today and tomorrow off.

STUDIO USES ROONEY TO TEST DRAFT RULING

Stare Hands Now Essential But Not Actors.
By The Associated Press
HOLLYWOOD, March 3.—Mickey Rooney's studio has a new role for its 21-year-old boxoffice attraction: To bill in a test of the premise that acting is an essential industry.

Mickey has been classified I-A by his draft board and I-G-M has filed an appeal and selective service headquarters in Sacramento, Calif. How does Mickey feel about it? The customarily cocksure, slipshod youngster said solemnly last night: "Whatever the Army wants, that's good enough for me. I'll do whatever Uncle Sam says." Mickey's mother, Mrs. Nell Pankey, said she had no objection to the studio's idea, not Mickey's.

And an M-G-M spokesman, disclosing the appeal was submitted a month ago, said its purpose was to determine the question of deferment "not only for Rooney, but for other actors as well." Mrs. Pankey declared Mickey made no more for deferment and had no desire to avoid classification for possible military service. The studio spokesman pointed out deferment had been granted some movie carpenters and technicians, but actors so far had not been considered by draft boards as essential.

RAF KEEPS UP NIGHT RAIDS ON GERMANY

LONDON, March 3.—Objective in western Germany were attacked again last night by the RAF, the air ministry announced today, acknowledging that three allied aircraft were missing after the seventh successive night of raids on continental targets. The ministry did not identify last night's targets. It also said mines were laid in enemy waters.

The Berlin radio announced British air attacks were over Western Germany last night and the German-controlled Paris radio told of attacks on occupied France.

The Berlin broadcast said comparatively few planes participated in the raids on Germany and spoke of bad weather over the continent. The Germans acknowledged, however, that the RAF raiders had caused some casualties and damage to buildings. They reported one British bomber shot down.

Contrary to expectations the Germans failed to retaliate for Monday night's smashing RAF raid on Berlin by striking back at London with one of their customary face-saving attacks last night.

For the third successive night the ministries of war and home security reported not a single German plane came over Britain during the hours of darkness.

Reuter reports from Stockholm, meanwhile, declared great fire still were raging last night in the German capital as a result of the worst pounding it has received from the RAF since the start of the war.

German broadcasts last night said that 191 persons had been killed and 268 injured in the raid on Berlin. The Germans also revised upward their claims on the number of British raiders shot down, reporting 21 destroyed.

The British listed 19 planes as lost in Monday night's foray, which included attacks on targets in France and mine-laying in the Channel. Constable batteries fought a sharp cross-channel duel last night.

He was an employee of the Huber Manufacturing Co. for years before becoming county commissioner. A member of Calvary Evangelical church, he held membership also in Marion Lodge No. 32, B. P. O. WHOLESALE MILK REVISIONS LISTED

Marion County and Vicinity Included in Changes.

Marion county and the six adjoining counties are included in minor adjustments in milk price and distribution territories, Ohio reported to The Associated Press by the regional office price administration in Cleveland. The order also translates previous orders into dollars-and-cents figures prevailing in various counties.

When a previous order granted price adjustments at distributed levels, Ohio's price administration last week prices consumers are being charged.

Marion, Crawford, Morrow, Wyandot, Union, Hardin and Delaware counties are included in the following price schedule: 45 cents for 45 cents wholesale on 45 cents retail; buttermilk at 23 cents and 26 cents, quarts at 12 cents and 14 cents, pints at 6 cents and 8 cents and 10 cents at 33 cents and 34 cents.

Milk dealers here said the retail price schedule does not affect the Marion market. A price increase granted last December, however, Marion is unable to sell quarts at 12 cents one dealer reported.

Gallon and half-gallon sales are not made on a retail basis in the local market and dealers are prohibited from bottling pints and half pints by government order. Montgomery county distributors are granted an increase of one-half cent a quart. The regional OPA said this increase would enable distributors in this county to bid successfully for available milk supplies and bring the price level up to that being paid in Cincinnati, Middletown and Hamilton.

Montgomery county has been in danger of losing its milk supply, Edward C. Welch, regional price executive, said. The regional OPA also granted an increase of one cent per quart in Sandusky county so the milk supply would not be diverted to the Toledo area where the prices are higher.

Welch said the delivery areas of the Cleveland, Akron, Toledo and Cincinnati markets were redefined because these sections had faced the possibility of not having a milk supply. He explained the distributor in these areas was required to travel additional miles, cover more territory and then sell his product at a lower price than in the adjacent territory.

The order also adjusts bulk milk sales in markets where no previous selling had been granted and fixes a ceiling price for half pints sold at retail. Previous increases in wholesale prices of half-pints had reduced the spread to a point where many restaurants were forced to handle the product at a loss, Welch added.

PAY-AS-YOU-GO TAX PLAN ADOPTED BY CANADA

OTTAWA, March 3.—A "pay-as-you-go" income tax plan under which the government will forego 50 per cent of 1942 tax liability on individual earned incomes will form the cornerstone of the year's fiscal structure for the year beginning April 1, budget proposals offered yesterday by Finance Minister J. L. Halsey to parliament indicated.

Although parliament will debate the proposals, rejection would be equivalent to a vote of non-confidence in the government, and no such move is expected. The plan, similar to that proposed by Beardsley Ruml and others in the current states, is a second step to put Canadian finances on a current basis, since the government's taxpayers already had paid a large part of the tax in 1942 incomes as they were earned through the medium of a "victory" tax on salaries and wages.

The new plan will eliminate an eight-month "lag" in government tax collections and put government income and outgo on a current basis.

Pilkington. From the new surroundings, Jones, one of the county's outstanding performers, dumped in 12 points.

DAHLGREN, OFFERED FOR $5,000 RECENTLY WORTH $30,000 NOW

At Least That's What Rickey Expects To Get for Him: Reports Nibbles.

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, March 3 — Just by way of proving it's an ill wind that doesn't blow anything but trouble into your eye, the Brooklyn Dodgers are sitting pretty today with a ball player who was worth $5,000 a couple of months ago and is expected to bring something like $30,000 in cash and every now.

He's Ellsworth (Babe) Dahlgren, the contending first baseman and utility infielder.

$5,000 Deal Set Aside

About a month ago, Baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis ruled out a deal whereby the Dodgers were selling him to Indianapolis for $5,000. But if you think that proved the Brooklyn, take another think right quick. Because of the shortage of available ivory, both the New York Giants and Philadelphia Phils are bidding for him now, and Branch Rickey says the club that gets him will have to send a ball player, or two along with a bundle of cash, the whole thing probably amounting to the $6 C's.

And as if that picture wasn't comical enough, the gum-shoe guys have discovered that the Dodgers not only have a fancy bit of trading brick-thrower in Dahlgren, but also that the Babe does not even want to play with the Dodgers. It appears he's more than a little burned up at Leo (the Lip) Durocher, the Dodger manager who was tossed out on his ear by the Army.

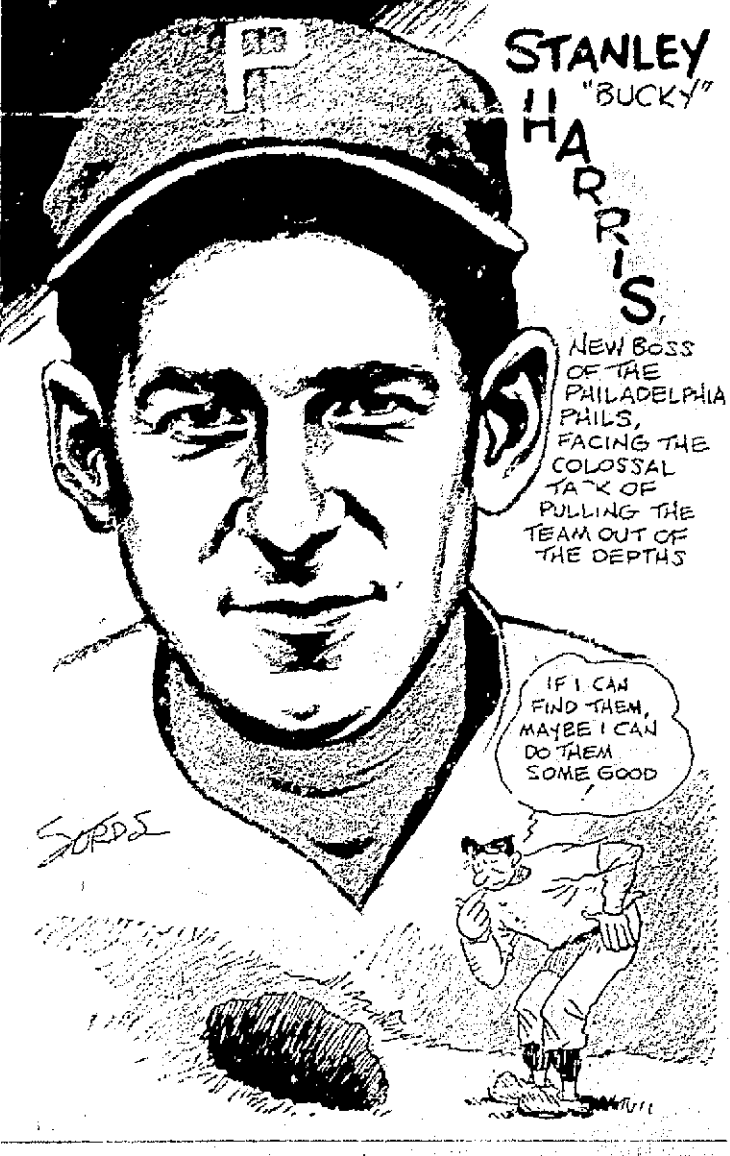

It's Nibbles Now

Up to yesterday, only the Giants had "nibbled" for Dahlgren, but Rickey reported today that "the nibble has now become nibbles."

"Of course," Branch added, "we expect more than just cash now. We can always use a ball player or two."

Dahlgren's desire to get out of Brooklyn dates from last year, when Durocher shipped him down the river to Montreal in mid-season.

ILLINOIS LANDS FOUR ON BIG 10 ALL STAR BASKETBALL TEAM

Coaches Pay New Honor to Illini in Associated Press Honor Roll.

By The Associated Press
CHICAGO, March 3 — The Illinois basketball team, which smashed almost every Big Ten scoring mark in winning its second consecutive championship, was handed another record today by conference coaches who threw precedent aside and voted four of its members onto the all-star team.

It was the first time in modern Big Ten basketball history that coaches, polled annually for The Associated Press honor roll, paid such overwhelming tribute to one team.

Honors Deserved

It was richly deserved, for the Illini came through a 12-game schedule in the tough Big Ten circuit unbeaten, the first quintet to do it in 13 years. They averaged 63 points a game, made 225 field goals, ran up 86 points against Northwestern and 92 against Chicago in their last two contests—all records.

Recognizing the amazing teamwork of these youngsters, coaches could do little less than select Andy Phillip at forward, Art Mathisen, center, and Jack Smiley and Gene Vance, guards. It was hard for them to leave off the fifth member, forward Ken Menke, however, saw only limited service half of the season because of an injured foot.

In Menke's place went Otto Graham of Northwestern whose deft scoring ability helped the Wildcats to third place in the conference race.

One Carry-Over

Whiz Kid Phillip was the only unanimous choice and the only hold-over from the 1942 all stars. He closed the season with a 40-point outburst to roll up a 235 total in his 12 games of record-breaking.

Indiana, which gave Illinois its only opposition until dropping two games late in the season, placed two men on the second team—its top scorer, Ralph Hamilton, and center Ward Williams.

Only one Ohio State player—center Jack Dugger—broke into the all star list, getting honorable mention.

Toledo U. Team All Set For Madison Square Garden Tilt

Ready for Clash Tonight with Long Island U. with Chance of Bid for Tournament.

By The Associated Press
Toledo university's all-freshman quarter carries the prestige of Ohio collegiate basketball into New York's Madison Square Garden tonight.

The Toledo Rockets, who are pacing the winning statewide cage championship fight with 13 victories and two losses, meet Long Island university in the opener of a Garden doubleheader with the possibility of a bid to the national invitational tournament now hanging on the results.

New York university and St. Johns of Brooklyn tangle in the after-piece of the twin bill.

Six Buckeye squads—Heidelberg, Findlay, Akron, Kenyon, Mount Union and John Carroll—wound up their campaign last night.

Akron university's Zippers announced Western Reserve 52 to 32 at Akron for a season record of 18 victories and three defeats. The Zippers' best in more than 20 years.

Wooster's Scots handed the Kenyon Lords a 60-25 thumping at Gambier, leaving the Lords with a final record of five wins and seven defeats. The Scots still have one game to play, Kent State at Wooster Saturday.

Heidelberg edged Findlay 63 to 59 at Tiffin to give them seven victories in 21 starts. Findlay's record: eight triumphs in 23 games.

Mount Union coasted to a 48-35 win over John Carroll as both squads wound up the season at Alliance. Mount Union finished with 11 wins and five losses, John Carroll with eight successes in 17 efforts.

NEW YORK, March 3 — If Toledo's all-freshman basketball team can knock off Long Island U. tonight it will virtually assure the Rockets of a bid to the invitation tournament at the Garden... and with Western Kentucky already invited, that might lead up to a tongue-twisting duel between Coaches Ed Diddle and Burl Friddle.

Of course, one would have to play second fiddle... Ex-light champion Sammy Angott has been toughening himself for his comeback against Willie Pep March 19 by working on a concrete mixer... And if Willie is in form, Sammy may think he's been put through the mixer by mistake.

One-Minute Sports Page — The "Special" pace planned for Saturday's I. Hershey Bears Pile Up New Ice Hockey Record
By The Associated Press

The pennant bound and record breaking Hershey Bears are holders of the American Hockey league record for goals scored by one club in a single season.

The Bears surpassed the old record last night when they trounced the Washington Lions, 12-1. The dozen markers brought Hershey's total for the campaign to 215, one more than the previous high set by the old Philadelphia Ramblers in 1938-39.

Two contests are carded for this evening. The Buffalo Bisons will face the Pittsburgh Hornets in Pittsburgh and the Cleveland Barons the Lions in Washington.

Louis Had What Braddock Lacked—Youth

By JAMES J. JOHNSTON
Manager of Boxing Champions

Jim Braddock, as you all know, was boxing's "Cinderella Man." A short year before he won the championship he was broke, a down-and-out fighter, past his youth, and could not get a bout in New York.

Braddock had boxed very badly and the New York commission had said he could not box in New York.

JIM BRADDOCK

The Heavyweight Trail

York state. I tried to use him as a substitute against Walter Neusel, the German, but the commission objected.

Jim was desperate the day he walked into my office and begged for a fight. I offered him a four round preliminary with Corn Griffin, on the Baer-Carnera championship card. The commission objected again but I said: "Braddock has a wife and three children, he has no job and no money, and I'm putting him on." He knocked out Griffin in four rounds. Then he whipped John Henry Lewis.

I matched Art Lasky against Steve Hamas, the winner to meet Baer. Lasky lost, but it was a close contest and the commission decided they should box again, at 15 rounds. Hamas' manager declined, so I matched Braddock with Lasky and Jim won. Then came Jim's chance against Baer for the title.

Braddock was a good boxer, a good puncher and knew the game thoroughly. But he was figured too old to box a young chao like Baer. I thought that with a title Baer would be hard to beat. The bell started them on their way Baer badly, and a nicer, finer man never held the championship.

But waiting for Jim was a young Negro, Joe Louis. Braddock, had experience, boxing skill, punch, and the title, but he didn't have the rapid coordination of youth.

Against Louis he could see openings for him to throw punches but by the time Jim got ready, the openings were gone. Louis, on the other hand, had everything nature had endowed him with—youth, strength, clever boxing ability, punch and unsurpassed confidence. Braddock fought a game fight, had Louis on the deck once, but he really never had a chance, and finally was knocked out.

Louis is one of our greatest champions. He has everything a champion should possess. He has defended his title more often than any other champion. He has met—and beaten—all comers. He is a gentleman in the ring and out, a credit to his race and to boxing.

Red Cross Wartime Service

Nutrition Classes Help Solve War Problems on Home Front; 82 Women Finish Courses.

Following is one of a series of articles on the services of the Red Cross in Cleveland.

Eighty-two Marion county women last year received certificates for having successfully completed the nutrition course offered in six classes conducted by the Marion County Red Cross chapter.

Though they're not decked out in uniforms, these women are wielding a weapon important to the war effort.

"These women have demonstrated that they realize the grave responsibility of keeping their families well-fed in spite of food shortages caused by wartime conditions," Mrs. Frances Hurst, nutrition chairman, said the other day.

"Food is an important weapon in wartime. The health and happiness of the home-maker's family depend on the skill with which she handles the food problem. Through Red Cross nutrition courses many Marion county women are learning how to plan well-balanced meals and how to buy economically.

The course shows women that a little ingenuity, combined with food knowledge, is of tremendous value in overcoming the obstacle

YOUR HEALTH

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

Body's Shock Absorbers.

IN A RECENT article I said that the most frequent cause of pain in the shoulder was inflammation of the acromioclavicular joint, which lies just between the end of the collar bone and the shoulder blade. In conversation the other day with a sufferer from this complaint, I said that the doctor told him that this was the only bursa in the body. He must have misunderstood the doctor, because there are many bursae located at any convenient place where a cushion would be useful.

There is one under each elbow, several in each wrist, one over each knee cap, one or two between the heads of each leg, several around the foot and one over the heel—to mention only a few.

All of them can get into trouble and become inflamed by the same causes as produce a subdeltoid bursitis. Since they are designed to absorb shock at pressure points, they very frequently get injured, and become painful as a result of this inflammation.

The most famous of these pressure points is the condition known as housemaid's knee, which is simply an inflammation of the pre-patellar bursa—the one which is located just over the knee cap. Jerome K. Jerome made great fun of housemaid's knee in "Three Men in a Boat" but it really exists and it really exists in housemaids, although with the growing scarcity of this species it probably is not as frequent as it used to be.

A fellow who leans on his elbow a great deal is likely to get an olecranon bursitis; also people who are subject to golf are likely to get it.

The bursae of the foot are so numerous because the foot takes all the punishment of weight-bearing and of the complicated movements which must be carried out smoothly in order to make an efficient organ that functions without pain.

The bursa of the back of the heel most often gives trouble. It is located just where the back of a low-heeled shoe hits and if the shoe is at all loose, the bursa is rubbed into inflammation. In former days these painful heels were supposed to be due to a bony outgrowth on the heel.

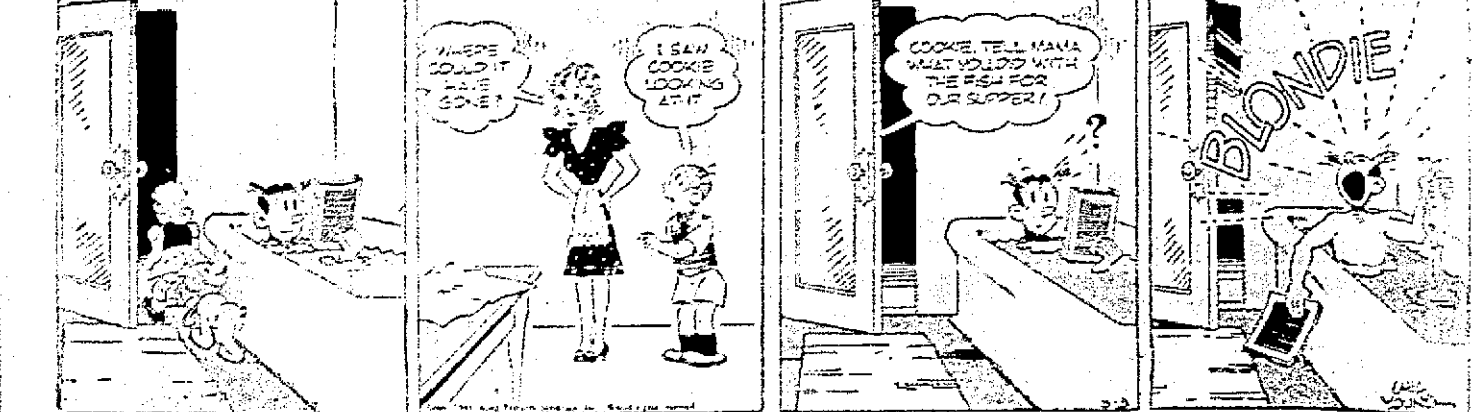

The reason for this is that if a person has a painful heel and an x-ray is made, the bony outgrowth shows up in about 90 per cent of cases. But as a matter of fact it also shows up in people who do not have painful heels. So orthopedic surgeons had to look for another cause and they evidently have found the cause of most cases of painful heel in inflammation of the bursa in this region.

Bringing Up Father

Pitfalls of Love

By ADELE GARRISON

WITH ONE EYE on the waiter, who I guessed were spies of Milner, Adams gave my father an explanation of his presence.

"Mr. Milner sent me over to thank you for your kindness," he said, "and to ask if everything here had been satisfactory, as he didn't have time to inquire."

"Most satisfactory," my father said. "But as long as you are here, there is something I wish to bring to Mr. Milner's attention. Take a chair, will you until this dinner debris is cleared away."

"Now then," my father went on, when the waiters had gone, and Adams began to speak hurriedly, in muted tones.

"He thinks you're pulling off something he'd like to horn in on," Adams began.

"Have you any idea what he thinks it is?" my father asked, and I knew he was distinctly uneasy.

"I don't think he knows himself," Adams said, and my father's quick intake of breath showed his relief. "He's just got a notion into his head there's somebody, either here or at the Vertigin suite, that you don't want him to see. Of course he doesn't dare to put the Vertigin suit on, but he's got started out on his own before he got started, and he knows it. So he's prowling around here. What shall I tell him?"

"Tell him," my father said after a moment, "that you gave us his message about the dinner. Then tell him that you told us he had suspected a short circuit in these rooms because of the way our lights were flickering, and had asked you to check the bulbs to see if any of them were loose."

"Then tell him," and be sure to stress this point, that you looked at every bulb in the suite, that we even unlocked every closet door to let you inspect the bulbs inside, and then assure him that there's nobody in here except the people he saw in the living room as he went through. Can you make him believe all that?"

"Yes, and I think that will satisfy him," Adams replied.

"How long would it take you to really inspect these bulbs?" my father asked.

"From five to ten minutes," Adams replied.

"Then wait eight minutes," my father decided, "before going back. And now I want to give you instructions for the rest of the evening."

He paused and put his finger tips together sure sign that he was weighing his words.

"Your one job for this evening," he said, "is keeping track of Milner. I want to know where he is every minute of the time. I shall be in this apartment and you can report to me here."

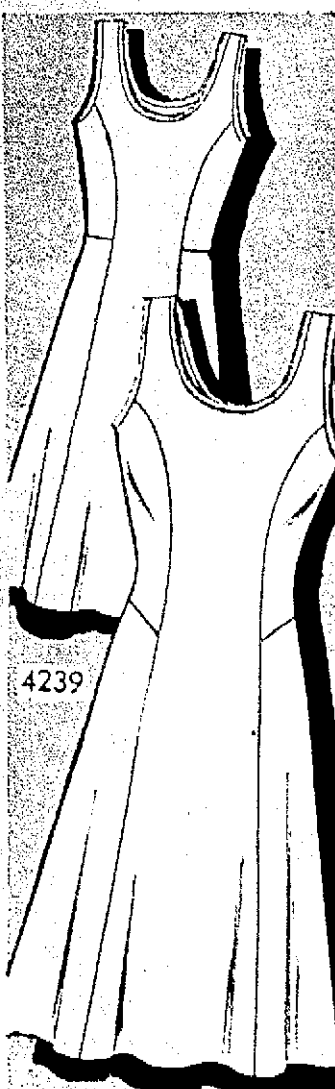

"I know that is going to be a difficult job, but it's vitally important to me, and I'm sure you're ingenious enough to manage it."

"I would prefer that you remain in the next apartment," my father said. "If by using the telephone to ask Milner plausible questions pretending to report to him, and by using employees of the hotel of whom we are sure, you can keep track of him. But do not hesitate to go elsewhere if you have to. It is vital that I keep track of his whereabouts—and his activities."

"I don't think you'll miss much of them," Adams said quietly, and when the eight minutes was up
